

Albertan Junior Golfer receives 2011 MJT Play Collegiate Golf Award

For Immediate Release - Vancouver, BC - (November 8, 2011) – Brett Pasula, a Grade 10 student at Notre Dame High School in Red Deer, Alberta, was selected as the 2011 recipient of the Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour's (MJT) Play Collegiate Golf Award this week.

The Play Collegiate Golf Award supports the Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour's goal of preparing its members for success at the collegiate level in both academic and athletic environments. Pasula, 15, who was selected from several outstanding finalists that represented many regions of Canada, will benefit from $1,000 worth of consulting support offered by Play Collegiate Golf (PCG) founder, Dr. Bruce Fleming, on the various aspects of beginning the collegiate golf program search process, helping frame "best fit" academic and athletic institutions as well as understanding the rules and regulations of the collegiate golf recruiting process.

"Through my partnership with the Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour I am excited to be able to offer my support to Brett Pasula and his family through the Play Collegiate Golf Award," said Dr. Fleming, who himself was a beneficiary of a golf scholarship from Kelowna Golf and Country Club in British Columbia over two decades ago.

Pasula, a member of Red Deer Golf and Country Club, has been playing competitive golf with the Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour over the past two seasons. "Thank you very much for the great news regarding the MJT Play Collegiate Golf Award!" he said. "The MJT is a class tour that provides excellent competitions, very well run events and great additional benefits to junior golfers like this scholarship. I am really looking forward to developing my longer term golf strategy and to working with Dr. Fleming. I appreciate that he has 'been there' as a collegiate player and that he is a well respected educator. Being able to connect with Play Collegiate Golf is an important step in my career plans and I truly appreciate the support of MJT and PCG with this effort. Thanks again for making this opportunity available to junior golfers in Canada!"

Runner-up to Pasula was MJT member, Derek Roach, 16, of Central Memorial High School in Calgary, Alberta, who will receive a consultation from Dr. Fleming. The products and services of Play Collegiate Golf help match clients' academic
