

recruityourself college.com

About RY2C (RecruitYourself2College.com)

- guides you step-by-step through the entire process with “HELP” buttons and links
- provides a detailed list of the information needed to prepare an athletic resume/cover letter (once registration is complete)
- formats the information in an individual sport-related resume/cover letter template
- maintains an updated database of all US head golf coaches
- recommends the level of colleges where you should apply (NCAA DI, DII, DIII, NAIA, NJCAA) depending on your competitive stroke average
- emails resume/cover letter to your selected US Coach distribution list (option to customize email introduction paragraph per college)
- after distribution is complete, emails you a timetable as well as a coaches’ reply tracking form for you to continue on your path to recruitment
- stores information for five years so you can return to the site, easily input your updated information/statistics and send out again. You can revise your photos, videos, distribution choice, as well as the design.
- an in-depth plan, in conjunction with RY2C to create your resume, covering letter, link to profile video and the distribution process to get your resume into DI, DII, DIII, NAIA, NJCAA college coaches inboxes
- time sensitive emails from RY2C reminding you where you should be in the recruitment process