Sean Foley Performance named 'Official International Training Partner' of Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour

Vancouver, BC – (January 14, 2019) – The Maple Leaf Junior Tour (MJT), Canada's number one-played junior golf tour and the 'Road to College Golf' in Canada, is pleased to announce a new partnership with Sean Foley Performance, a residential golf academy located just outside of Orlando, Florida, which offers elite golf training and an unparalleled experience for junior players. The partnership agreement is for a three-year term running through the end of 2021.

One of the biggest names in golf instruction, Sean Foley coaches the likes of 2018 FedEx Cup Champion and Olympic Gold Medalist, Justin Rose, 2016 Masters champion, Danny Willett, PGA Tour rookie sensation, Cameron Champ, and was formerly the coach of Tiger Woods. He has been voted as the top golf teacher in the world by players on the PGA Tour. Foley set out to be a teacher of elite players after watching David Leadbetter work with Nick Faldo on the range at the RBC Canadian Open in 1988, and the world-class coaches at Sean Foley Performance at Timacuan Golf and Country Club implement his core teaching philosophy to help golfers evolve into the best players and people they can be.

"It is fantastic to have Sean Foley Performance as the MJT's Official International Training Partner," stated Murray Poje, Executive Director of the Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour. "Now Canadian junior golfers have the opportunity to experience off-season instructional camps under the direction of one of golf's great names in teaching to help bring their games to another level."

Canadian-born Sean Foley, Director at Sean Foley Performance, commented, "Being involved with Junior Golf has always been important to me, so it's a fantastic opportunity to partner with the Maple Leaf Junior Tour. We have built some great programs here in Florida and I'm excited for these talented young players to come down and experience them."

MJT members will enjoy offers for week-long camps at Sean Foley Performance, and they can also attend the exclusive full-time training and boarding program which has a limited enrollment of 22 full-time students for 2018-19, increasing to 30 for 2019-20. The academy currently has an international student body that comes from six different countries.
