GOLF TEAM RECEIVES $4,000 DONATION FROM MAPLE LEAF JUNIOR GOLF TOUR

Vancouver, BC – (June 8, 2010) – The Boston Pizza-presented non-profit Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour (MJT), Canada’s only national junior tour run exclusively by Canadian PGA Professionals, has donated $4,000 to the University of the Fraser Valley (UFV) Cascades Golf Team in British Columbia to financially assist their program.

As part of the MJT’s mandate to develop junior golf in Canada, the donation will help the young athletes achieve their golfing goals via trips to various competitive tournaments. Alumni from the MJT have dominated the UFV Cascades Golf Team roster in recent years. Currently seven out of the eight players on the Team, namely Mitchell Lock, Brett Stewart, Brett Webster, Jessie Singh, Jeff Wright, Mike Broadfoot and Sean Patrick, are MJT alumni.

In 2008, the Team won their first ever BCCAA (British Columbia Colleges Athletic Association) Provincial championship, went on to place third at the CCAA (Canadian Colleges Athletic Association) National Championships, and were inducted into Abbotsford's Sports Hall of Fame. In 2009, the Team won its second straight BCCAA Provincial championship. Last week they tied for fourth in the Canadian University/College Championship in Fredericton, NB, against the top universities in the country.

“As a small school there isn't a lot of money for all of the sports programs and the golf team often falls by the wayside,” said Lock, Cascades Golf Team member. “We have to constantly fundraise so that we can go on trips and play in tournaments that the school hasn't budgeted for us. The generous contribution from the Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour will go a long way and we greatly appreciate it.”
